COURAGE BUILDS INDEPENDENCE

Michael Preto, CFP®, CIM®

We're grateful to have the opportunity to work with you and your families. We want you to know our core values, commitments and beliefs so we're going to share one with you in each letter we write.

To become independent in life you must take calculated risks and manage those risks well. To take risks you need to be courageous. The benefits of being independent are well worth the risks. Whether it's on the water, slopes, at work or life in general. This is Hillside's perspective and we'd love to hear your take on this - please feel free to let us know your thoughts!
